Returns to Webster with Attorney for Employed.

In the town court Thursday morning Judge Harry E, Back presiding, George Elliott, the colored chauffeur employ-ed by Mrs. Jennie S. Chase of Webster, was presented and pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication, upon the direction of his counsel, Attorney Charles A. Haggerty of Webster, Mrs. Chase's personal counsel. Attorney Haggerty explained to the court that Elliott is normally a quiet and careful man; that he was not himself when he engaged in the episode with Mrs Chase's automobile here late Wednesday afternoon, when he backed the machine into the Bradford building on Center street, smashed out a window in Lafayetie Hoyle's place of business and racked the side of the structure in a damaging way.

Attorney Haggerty told the court be

Attorney Haggerty told the court he would like the privilege of taking Elliott home with him; that the prisoner would not be allowed to drive the car again and that he felt warranted in asserting that the damage done to the building would be made good. He explained that Elliott is the father of eight children and his labor for their eight children and his labor for their eight children and his labor for their support was needed. Judge Back im-posed a fine of $3 and costs, amounting to $14.59, which Attorney Hagger-ty paid. Elliott left the court room in the company of the attorney, who

There was momentary excitement in Front street at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when a horse owned by Roy Shippee made a mad dash through the thoroughfare, which is usually crowded, coming in from School street. Opposite the Geeson market the runaway, attached to a light lumber wagon, collided with a wagon in which attached to a light lumber wagon, col-lided with a heavy wagon in which Sam Ankotol was driving. This col-lision was not serious for Ankotol, merely twisting the seat of his vehi-cle out of position, but it upset the vehicle the runway was dragging and turned it bottom side up on the car tracks. The horse freed itself and ran on up Front street around Bugbee's corner into Elm, coming to a stop of its own accord near the store of L. E. Smith. Neither horse nor wagon was injured and by great good luck no person was hurt.

NEW STYLES IN SHIRT WAISTS

For Fall Wear Will Be Found Here

Wonderfully pleasing are these clever little models.

They fairly radiate sweetness and softness. Some are quite fancy, others severely plain. All, however, are made of soft, delicate voile, lawn and marquisette, daintily embroidered. Many have frilly lace or net at neck and sleeve, or fancy collar, lending a soft, becoming effect to the wearer. Altogether, they're about the best looking lot of Waists we've shown in a long time.

"WHEREWITHALL"

Everybody needs it, of course. Everybody is going to need it more in the future, too, when the earning capacity is less than during youth or middle-age. The best way to be sure to have some THEN is to save a little NOW—a little at a time, but that little often.
